Launch of Playstation(R)2 Creates Hot Demand for Mad Catz Accessories

BRAMPTON, ONTARIO--

Strong demand for Mad Catz' PlayStation(R)2 accessories expected to accelerate

GTR Group Inc., a leading manufacturer of video game accessories as well as a provider of value-priced video games software, is benefiting from last week's launch of PlayStation(R)2 as demand for its Mad Catz range of PlayStation(R)2 accessories continues to increase. Mad Catz' DVD Wireless Remote and its licensed Memory Card have been particularly well received by retailers.

"Demand for our PlayStation(R)2 accessories has been strong ever since the launch of the new console on October 26th", said Peter Kozicz President and C.E.O. of GTR Group. "Prior to last week's launch we had shipped over 150,000 Mad Catz accessories for the PlayStation(R)2 into the North American retail channels. We are currently shipping over 20,000 units per day and expect demand to intensify as we get closer to the busy Christmas season. The launch of PlayStation(R)2 marked the beginning of a long-term growth cycle for our industry. Over the last two years we have positioned GTR to be a prime beneficiary of this growth and we have clearly started to benefit from this strategy."

Just two weeks ago, GTR announced that it had achieved one of its main corporate objective for fiscal 2001 by having the right accessories available at the right price, in the right quantities and at the right time for the launch of Sony's PS2. Last month, GTR announced the launch of a complete line-up of accessories designed for PlayStation(R)2 as well as a $80 million bank financing that gives the company the resources it needs to meet the strong demand experienced for these products.
